The Gallup Poll

Concern About War In Vietnam Growing

PRINCETON, N.J., Nov 31
The proportion of Americans who name the war in Vietnam as the most important problem facing the Nation is higher now than in any other previous measurement.

At regular intervals, the Gallup Poll asks this question:

"What do you think is the most important problem facing this country today?"

The detailed findings for the Nation:

International Problems	60%
Vietnam	37%
Threat of War	12
World Communism	7
U.S. Prestige Abroad	6
Threat of Red China	1
Domestic Problems	43%
Civil Rights	17%
High Cost of Living	6
Moral Problems, lack of religion	3
Poverty	2
Juvenile Delinquency	2
Education	2
Teen-age Problems	2

Crime	1
Others	8
No Opinion	4%

(NOTE: Some persons gave more than one answer in the same category, and some named both a domestic and an international problem.)

All persons who mentioned a problem were also asked this question:

"Which political party do you think can do the better job of handling the problem you have just mentioned—the Republican Party or the Democratic Party?"

The results:

	Latest Survey	Prev'us Survey
Democratic	38%	34%
Republican	17	17
No difference	34	38
No opinion	11	11
Demo. Margin	21	17
